

Sheila Smith – Director of Photography

Sheila is a director of photography (DP) and Steadicam operator. She has worked on independent features, commercials, documentaries, television shows, sporting events and music videos in the United States and in numerous countries around the world. Her clients include WETA, PBS, BBC, NBC, Discovery Network, and the Defense Logistics Agency. She recently operated Steadicam on USA Networks Covert Affairs and worked as DP on documentaries about Iraq War for BBC, The AIDS Memorial Quilt for Red Thread Productions and on national commercial spots for GMMB and AARP. Other projects include the Bank of America Student Leadership Summit, PBS Frontline, the BET interview with President Obama and Steadicam work for MSNBC Morning Joe. In 2009, Sheila won the Women of Vision award from WIFV-DC and in 2000 the Director of Photography/Film DC Peer Award.